Honorable Leverett Saltonstall
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Senator Saltonstall:

STAT Thank you for your letter of 8 October 1965 concerning [redacted]

STAT As you know, [redacted] submitted his application for consideration for employment with us. However, after a thorough review we were unable to locate a suitable position for [redacted] and advised him on 18 May 1965 of this fact. We have kept his file in the active category for consideration but no appropriate opening has yet been identified for him. In response to your inquiry, we are making a special check of outstanding requirements to determine whether there may now be a vacancy which would accommodate his employment. Our Director of Personnel has written directly to [redacted] to advise him of this action and a copy of that letter is enclosed for your information.
